The format of articles submission in the periodical "Proceedings of the History Museum of Armenia"

About the periodical

"Proceedings of the History Museum of Armenia" is a peer-reviewed periodical published since 1941. The purpose of the periodical is to present the studies of Armenian and foreign researchers who refer to the materials and archival documents of various museums in Armenia.

1. The content of the article

- The main content and text of the article must contain a scientific novelty, refer to materials stored in museums or archives of Armenia and correspond to any of the following topics:
- Archaeology
- Ethnography
- History
- Museology
- Folklore

2. The article structure

- At the beginning of the article, the text should be presented according to the following principle:
- At the beginning, the title of the article with headings
- one line down, author's name and academic title (if any)
- on the next line, the represented scientific institution without abbreviations
- one line down, personal e-mail address
- one line down, up to 7 keywords
- one line down, the text of the article

- After the text, it is necessary to present the used Primary sources (present primary sources, archival sources, dictionaries) and Studies (present articles and monographs).

- Next, summaries in English and Russian, according to the following principle: the title of the article with headings; one line below the author's first and last name; one line below the represented institution; one line below the e-mail address; one line below the keywords; and then the text. For summaries, the maximum length of text in each language should be 300 words.

- The text of the article (including the list of references, English and Russian summaries) should be 10-30 pages.
- Articles are accepted in Armenian, English, French, and Russian.
- In addition to the actual text, one page of tables and up to 10 images with a resolution of at least 300 dpi can be submitted.
- Present the tables at the end of the text and align the borders with the page margins.
- Present the list of images at the end of the text, numbering them as fig. 1, fig. 2...; send the images in a separate file with the appropriate name of the list.
- References should be made in the text according to the following principle: in parentheses, only the last name of the author or two co-authors (in the case of more authors, only the last name of the first author, then others), the year of publication of the work, then a comma and the pages used. For example, (Sahakyan 2021, 15-17).
Number the second or more articles or books by the same author and the same year with letters of the alphabet, for example, (Sahakyan 2020a, 162; Sahakyan 2020b, 38). If two different authors with the same last name have publications in the same year, then in the brief reference, mention the first letter of their name after the last name (Sahakyan A. 2021, 76; Sahakyan G. 2021, 10). Separate consecutive references in the same reference with a semicolon. For example, (Sahakyan 2014, 12; Grigoryan 2010, 25).

- The list of primary sources and studies should be formed as follows: first, sources in Armenian, then in Russian and other languages.

- In the case of books, first mention the surname of the author(s) and the year of publication in capital letters, then, after the dash, the surname, the first letters of the name and patronymic, the Title (in italics), the Place, and the Year; for example, HOVHANNISYAN 1978 – Hovhannisyan K., Repair of architectural monuments in Soviet Armenia, Yerevan.
- In the case of book chapters: the last name of the Author(s) and year, then a dash, followed by the last name of the Author(s) and first letter of first name, the Chapter title, the Book title (in italics), the Volume, the Editor(s), the Place of publication, the Year, and the Pages (without mentioning the word "page").

Example: YEREMYAN 1971 – Yeremyan S., The struggle of Greater Armenia for independence after the fall of the Artaxiad dynasty. History of the Armenian People, volume I, Yerevan, 703-734.

- In the case of articles, first indicate the surname of the author and the year of publication in capital letters, then after the dash the surname, the first letters of the name and patronymic, the Title of the article, the full name of the Periodical (miscellany) (in italics), the Year, the Volume, the Number, and the Pages (without mentioning the word "page"); for example, KHANZADYAN 1959 – Khanzadyan Y., Ancient Armenian musical instruments, Proceedings of the State Historical Museum of Armenia, 1959, 5, 63-93.

- For electronic materials: the Author (if known), Title, then dash followed by the Author (if known), Title, Magazine /daily newspaper name, Place (if known), Web link, (date last accessed); for example, TREASURES OF ARTSAKH – Treasures of Artsakh: HRD has published a report on the threat to Armenian cultural heritage, ttps://www.artsakhombuds.am/hy/news/494 (20.09.2021-12:00)

- In the case of conference reports or theses, last name of the Author(s) and year, then a dash followed by last name and first initial of the Author(s), Paper title, Conference miscellany title, Place, Year, and Pages.

- In the case of archival materials: the Author(s), Year (indicating unpublished), Title, Place, Institution where stored, and Number.

- In the case of fieldwork materials: the Author(s), Year (indicating unpublished), Title, Place, and Number (if available).

- Provide a list of abbreviations (if any) at the end of the article. Example:
  ABBREVIATIONS
  HMA - History Museum of Armenia

3. The technical parameters of the page

- The text of the article should be on an A4 page, with margins of 3 cm on the left side, 1.5 cm on the right side, and 2 cm on the top and bottom. Line spacing should be 1.5 cm, font size 12, font Sylfaen, right and left aligned. There is no need to indent any word in the text. Send it with a file saved in Word 2007.
- In the text, write the numbers and centuries in Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3…), in the case of centuries, BC or AD (if all the dates in the text refer to our era, then there is no need).

Articles should be sent to hmaconference@gmail.com

The publishing process

If the article meets all the technical and content criteria, it is sent to the reviewer, and the submitted proposals are sent to the author for changes. After presenting the change proposals and a positive opinion, the article is included in the next issue of the periodical.

Authors without academic degrees (masters, PhD students) must submit a letter of recommendation from a scientific supervisor or subject specialist to the editorial office.